PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Kalbe Consumer Health, Jakarta

Feb 2024 – Feb 2025

Application Developer Intern (Fullstack Developer)

- Developed an automated trade-to-finance integration with Oracle services, automatically generating Requests for Payment (RFP) and bridging data gap between departments.
- Built and scaled an event approval management system using Golang (Gin) and Nextjs, reliably handling 100+ active users and 200+ monthly enterprise events.
- Leveraged Golang concurrency patterns to optimize background processing and API response times for high-throughput inventory endpoints.
- Developed core inventory modules for a sales and stocks dashboard application utilizing Laravel and Livewire.
- Implemented secure enterprise authentication by integrating an HR innovation contest app with an internal Single Sign-On (SSO) gateway.
- Containerized frontend and backend applications using Docker and deployed them to Google Cloud Platform (GCP) to ensure consistent runtime environments.

Ukirama, Jakarta

Feb 2025 – Present

Junior Software Engineer

- Develop and maintain core ERP product with 150+ clients using Ruby and AngluarJs
- Design and developed a high performance standalone Golang engine to offload complex SQL reporting queries which significantly reduces report generation time by 50%.
- Spearheaded the integration of Ukirama ERP with the Indonesian customs system (CEISA), enabling seamless, automated tracking for all import and export documentation.
- Modernize existing ERP legacy code from AngularJs to NextJs which increases performance by up to 40%.
- Generate Model Context Protocol (MCP) tools for ERP features, utilizing AI-assisted development workflows to accelerate coding and system integration.
- Refactored tightly coupled server-side rendered Ruby controllers (ERB) into RESTful JSON APIs without disrupting existing functionality.
- Integrated Sanity page builder in ukirama website that exponentially decreases development and release time.
